attracting what you want

The INTUITIVE Flow Worksheet

The Intuitive Flow is about experiencing oneself as an instrument of Grace through which life happens.

If any incident, resistance, emotions or belief shows up, then place the hands on the heart and collar bone and complete the process below.

Begin by invoking the energy of healing by saying the following statement out loud, “This healing is on behalf of all points of view, our ancestors and future generations and on completion is completely complete.”

Say out loud each of the statements below one by one and sit with it for up to a minute and let the vibration of the statement filter in.
